VOLUME 6. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, TUESDAY, MAY 23, 1916. NO. 304.

M'DONALD FROM STANBERRY SUP'T.

M. U. ALUMNUS, 28 YEARS OLD, HEAD OF SCHOOLS HERE.

MARRIED SENIOR GIRL IN NORMAL CHRISTMAS

Mrs. McDonald Was Miss Katherine Megede of Richmond — Will Elect Principal and Coach Tomorrow.

J. M. McDonald, superintendent of schools for the last three years at Stanberry, was elected superintendent of the Maryville schools last night after a long session. He was rather a dark horse candidate but is highly spoken of by all the members of the board.

The new superintendent received most of his education at Central college, Fayette, Mo. He dropped out of school in the middle of his last year to begin teaching. He resumed work in the summer sessions of the university, and holds an A. B. degree, also a B. S. in education from the university. He is 28 years old.

Mr. McDonald is known in Maryville, having made frequent trips to this city to visit Miss Katherine Megede of Richmond, a senior in the Normal. They were married at her home during the last Christmas holidays.

He will receive $1,500 as superintendent. He was re-elected at Stanberry at a salary of $1,350 after having received $1,200 in former years. Stanberry citizens and members of the school board are extravagant in their praise of his work there.

Will Be Here Tomorrow.

The new superintendent, who is visiting in Tripplett with his parents, will arrive tomorrow for a conference with the board with reference to a coach and principal of the high school. A meeting will be held tomorrow night.

W. M. Westbrook, former superintendent, who goes to Marshall, Mo., at a raise of $300 in salary, is very strong in commendation of his successor. He was intimately acquainted with McDonald while attending summer sessions. Mr. Westbrook believes that the new man will give satisfaction in every way.

His full name is John Mason McDonald. He has always borne the name of "Mack" while in school and college, however. He was actively interested in all student affairs. When a junior in Central college, he was business manager of "The Ragout," the college annual.

He needs but a few more hours of credits to receive a Master of Arts degree from the University of Missouri.

Two More Salaries Raised.

By a special motion of the board last night the salaries of Miss Lois Halley and Miss Dora Carpenter in the high school were raised $5 each, making their pay for next year $75 a month. An error in copying yesterday made us say that the salary of Miss Edna Bonewitz of the Central school and Miss Ella Hazelrigg would be $50.

This is not the case. Both teachers having been here two years, their salary was raised the customary $5. They will receive $55 a month next year.

OH! JUPE! RAIN FOREVER

No Southeast Wind on Ash Wednesday But It Seems Unable to Stop Pouring.

The wind did not blow from the south or southeast on Ash Wednesday but anyhow Jupiter Pluvius certainly is using up a lot of perfectly good moisture on this part of Missouri to the discomfort of both farmers and townspeople—yes, and those who just love to burn up 23-cent gasoline.

May certainly will go on record as an unusual month for rain and cold weather. Last night's precipitation of .48 inch brings the total rainfall for the first twenty-one days of the month to 6.72 inches.

Leave for Des Moines.

Mrs. W. T. Garrett and granddaughter, Miss Golda Airy, left this morning for Des Moines, Ia., where they will visit Mrs. Garrett's daughters, Mrs. Harry Foster and Miss Lou Garrett.

LANE FUNERAL TOMORROW

The funeral services of Mrs. Elizabeth Lane, who died last Thursday, May 18, will be held at the home, one and a half miles north of Barnard, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Geo. T. Rolston, pastor of the M. E. church South at Barnard.

Mrs. Lane was born in Knox county, Tenn., Dec. 11, 1837, but had lived in Nodaway county since 1844. She was twice married, first to Charles Hiltibidal, who lost his life in the Civil war, and later to N. B. Lane.

She leaves four children, J. O. Hiltibidal and Edgar A. Lane, at home, and Mrs. Margaret Guisinger of Golden Valley, N. D., and Mrs. Gertrude Montgomery of British Columbia, Canada. The children will all be present for the funeral.

TO HONOR VETERANS

G. A. R. AND W. R. C. PLANS FOR MAY 30 ANNOUNCED.

MEMORIAL DAY SERMONS

Graves Will Be Decorated and Address Will Be Made by the Rev. C. H. John Tuesday Afternoon.

The program for the Grand Army of the Republic and the Women's Relief Corps for Memorial Sunday and Decoration Day is announced today by the committee for that celebration, which is J. M. Evans, A. R. Sowers and Charles Hyslop. It is approved by Hosea Stone, post commander, and A. M. Hopper, adjutant.

The exercises will begin Sunday morning when Sedgwick post and the W. R. C. will meet at headquarters and march to the Christian church at 10:45 for a Memorial Day sermon by the pastor, the Rev. C. Emerson Miller. Monday will be spent in the decoration of graves.

Comrade A. R. Sowers will have charge of the placing of flags on all of the old soldiers' graves in Old City, St. Mary's, St. Patrick's and Miriam cemeteries. Comrade Charles Hyslop will direct the decoration in Oak Hill cemetery.

An earnest solicitation of the public is made for them to bring flowers to the basement of the First Methodist church, where the W. R. C. will prepare them for distribution of the graves on Tuesday morning beginning at 8:30 o'clock. The men and women of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will then go to the cemeteries for the decoration work.

The memorial service will be held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday at 3 o'clock. The choir of that church will furnish the music. The principal part of the program will be the well known address by the Rev. C. H. John, a comrade of this post, on the subject, "Abraham Lincoln, the Representative American."

Prof. H. A. Miller of the Normal will read Lincoln's Gettysburg address and the order for the first Memorial Day, issued in 1868 by General John A. Logan, will be read. All the public, particularly young people and old soldiers of the blue and the gray, are specially invited to the services.

A large number of the local G. A. R. post are expecting to go to the national encampment of veterans in Kansas City on that day. Former President Roosevelt will speak in that city May 30 and it is the nearest national encampment ever held to Maryville. The Billy Sunday meetings are an added attraction. It is believed that all the veterans in Maryville who are able to make the trip will go.

GRAHAM MEET HELD

EVENTS POSTPONED FROM FRIDAY RUN YESTERDAY.

HAVE GRADUATION ALSO

"Barefoot Race" One of the Features of Track and Field Events for Which Merchants Gave Prizes.

The Hughes township track meet was held yesterday afternoon at Graham commencing at 1 o'clock. A large crowd from the rural districts attended the meet, which was postponed from last Friday.

The Hayzlett school with thirty live rooters, many banners and a lot of yells took in the meet. The Graham consolidated schools did not intend that any banners, larger or smaller, should outclass them, and a school fight for the banners ensued, which was indulged in with a great deal of vim.

The Graham school captured the Hayzlett banner and peace reigned, and the track meet progressed uninterrupted except for the yells, and no one could stop the jolly rivalry between the schools.

The officials were: John Lorance, Robert Noblett, Wesley Baker and Rev. Frank Tinney. Prizes for the various events were given by the Graham merchants.

One of the most laughable of the "stunts" of the afternoon was the "barefoot race." In this race it was necessary for the contestant from the firing of the gun to take off his shoes and stockings, run 50 yards and put them back on. The winner in this was Vern Cox, with Ralp McDowell, second. The other winners were:

100-yard dash: Town—First, Marvin Mowry; second, Lester Acklin. Rural—First, Charles Collins; second, Ralph McDowell.

PHILOS WIN THE DEBATE

The Philomatheans won the annual literary debate in the Normal auditorium last night from the Eurekans. N. C. Wagers and Miss Carrie Coler, the winning debaters, were speaking on the negative of the question that immigration must be restricted immediately

The decision was two to one, the Rev. C. Emerson Miller casting his vote in favor of E. C. Borchers and Lowell Livengood of the Eurekans, who spoke on the affirmative. W. G. Sawyers, prosecuting attorney, and the Rev. William Moll Case, were the other two judges.

By the point scoring of the judges, Wagers was given an average of 85 1-3; Livengood, the same; Miss Coler, 84 2-3 and Borchers, 82 1-3. The individual ranking was Borchers, 10; Miss Coler and Livengood, 7, and Wagers, 6. The team average was therefore Philos, 85, and the Eurekans, 83 5-6.

"BATTLE CRY" IS GREAT

NOT IN SAME CLASS WITH "BIRTH OF A NATION."

Famous Film at Empire Theatre Well Worth Seeing But Is Too Full of Pageants and Propagandas.

About three-fourths of a houseful saw "The Battle Cry of Peace" at the Empire Theatre last night and everyone agrees that it is a great film and worth going to see by all means. It certainly will make one have long, long thoughts on the subject of preparedness.

Much discussion has been aroused among those who have also seen "The Birth of a Nation." It seems to be generally agreed that for heart interest, greatness of scenes and stupendousness of setting the "war" film is not to be compared with the story of the Civil war. Griffith's great production far surpasses the Vitagraph's famous photodrama.

One must go to the showing of "The Battle Cry of Peace" already steeled against the horrible. The dreadfulness of war gets on the spectator's nerves no matter how one prepares to prevent it. The "inferno-like" character of the film is lightened by frequent tableaus and pageants of great beauty.

What impresses the one attending such a show is the great amount of "Preparedness gospel" scattered through it. The appeal to "you" is made constantly and the thinking visitor has a tendency to draw away from the propaganda and to distrust the showing of the film because sent out by those who have munitions and armor plate to sell.

The show lasts two hours and a quarter. Much pleasure is added to the showing by the music of Maulding's orchestra and the singing of Miss Bess Scott.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Democratic Press Bureau.

Col. George Harvey, prophet of plutocracy and editor of the North American Review, solemnly declares that this country is now as unanimous for Hughes for president as it was for George Washington. The comparison of a plutocrat like Justice Hughes to a patriot like George Washington is too silly even to be laughable. That bunch of whiskers might make good stuffing for a mattress, but it will never adorn the Presidency.

There are more Irish in the United States than there are in Ireland, and the majority of them are Democrats. Somebody has said that the Italians discovered this country, the Germans made it, the Irish govern it and the Jews own it. However that may be, the best day's work any Irishman ever did (both for himself and the rest of us) was when he came to this country and joined the Democratic party. If that last Irish rebellion results in turning a few thousand more of them in our direction, it will be worth all it cost.

FIGHT ON STAMP BOOKS

MAN CLAIMS PATENT AND ASKS $1,000,000 DAMAGES.

Government Makes 1 Cent Profit on Each Booklet—Before Supreme Court Now.

The battle to protect Uncle Sam from being "soaked" by the horde of claimants that seek to collect at his expense has many interesting aspects.

That little vest-pocket stamp book with a dozen stamps in it, price 25 cents, is the subject of a law suit in which Uncle Sam is asked to pay more than $1,000,000 damages. It is declared to be royalties due the patentee of the stamp book idea.

The case goes back to 1898. In that year through Senator Penrose, two models of a stamp book patented by Frank G. Farnham, together with a printed pamphlet explanatory of the device, were referred to the then Third Assistant Postmaster General. John A. Merritt was Third Assistant at the time and replied that "the department deems it inexpedient to sell postage stamps in the way proposed." However, after July 1, 1899, the then Third Assistant Postmaster General, Edwin C. Madden, designed without knowledge of the existence of the Farnham patent the stamp book now used by the department. The Bureau of Engraving and Printing evolved methods for its manufacture and the Post Office department began the public sale of two cent stamps in book form.

Farnham wants the alleged profits of the government on the sale of the stamp books during the ten year period from 1900 to 1910. The government sells twelve two-cent stamps for a quarter, charging one cent for the book The contention is that the profits on the sale of the books during the ten years have exceeded a million dollars.

The Court of Claims dismissed Farnham's contention. The latter's attorneys then appealed to the Supreme court where a final decision is now soon expected.

MANTELL DEAN OF AMERICAN ACTORS

Many Critics Regard Him as the Foremost Player of Shakespeare.

ST. LOUIS HAS ENGAGED HIM

To Play Jaques in Community Production of "As You Like It," June 5 to 11 at Forest Park, in Honor of Shakespeare Tercentenary.

ROBERT B. MANTELL.

Robert B. Mantell, who has been engaged by Miss Margaret Anglin, star of the municipal production of "As You Like It," June 5 to 11 in Forest Park, St. Louis, to play the part of Jaques in that production, is conceded by many authorities on the drama to be the dean of American actors.

Other Shakespearean players of note are unreserved in their praise of Mr. Mantell. William Faversham, himself a great Shakespearean actor, was asked, when playing in St. Louis recently, for his opinion of Robert B. Mantell, and replied:

"Mr. Mantell is the dean of American actors—at least I regard him as such."

The decision of St. Louis to celebrate the Shakespearean tercentenary by producing, pageant-like in scope, a Shakespearean play was heartily endorsed by Mr. Faversham.

Outdoor Auditorium Good Thing.

"This great outdoor production of 'As You Like It' is desirable from every standpoint," continued Mr. Faversham. "The Board of Aldermen and the Pageant Drama Association alike deserve the thanks of all the people for co-operating to enable this production and, as a result of it, the acquirement by St. Louis of a permanent outdoor auditorium."

Robert B. Mantell was born in 1854 at Ayrshire, Scotland, whence he moved to Ireland, where, at the age of 16, he manifested a desire for the stage.

Suffered Usual Setbacks.

After the usual setbacks Mr. Mantell obtained a solid footing in London, where he learned his Shakespeare with such men as Barry Sullivan and Samuel Phelps. His first important American appearance was at Albany, N. Y., with Madame Modjeska.

Mr. Mantell later played leading parts in "The World," "Romany Rye" and many other noted plays. His fame dates from his appearance as Loris Ipanoff in Fanny Davenport's production of "Sardous Fedora." Numerous successes, including "Monbars," "The Face in the Moonlight" and "The Corsican Brothers," followed.

The debut of Mr. Mantell as a Shakespearean star was in 1895. Since then he has acted in almost every Shakespearean play that has been produced. He is especially noted for his performance of "Hamlet," "Macbeth," "King Lear," "King John" and "Richard III."

Civic Theater the Aim.

Dr. Arthur E. Bostwick, librarian of the St. Louis Public Library and chairman of the Book Committee of the St. Louis Pageant Drama Association, in the foreword to a souvenir book of about 100 pages, containing the Margaret Anglin version of "As You Like It," that has been issued by the association in connection with the production in which Mr. Mantell will appear, says:

"As a civic contribution to the nation-wide celebration of the Shakespeare tercentenary, the St. Louis Pageant Drama Association has planned what promises to be the most ambitious outdoor performance of a play of Shakespeare ever undertaken.

"The association was formed to produce the Pageant and Masque of St. Louis, which was performed near Art Hill, in Forest Park, on May 28-31, 1914, and proved to be, in point of size, of interest and of attendance, foremost among undertakings of the kind.

"The Pageant Drama Association has maintained its organization, with the ultimate object of securing for St. Louis a permanent civic theater. For the coming celebration it has selected a spot admitting a somewhat more intimate dramatic presentation than that of the great Pageant. Art Hill accommodated, sitting and standing, audiences exceeding 100,000. The present theater will seat about 10,000. It lies on the slope of a ravine, at whose bottom flows the River Des Peres. The stage is on the brink of the stream, and is approached by the actors over a rustic bridge."

SILO FOR EVERY FARM

More Feed by Putting Grain in Them Than Any Other Way—Plans Furnished Free.

Practically every farmer has planted crops this spring which will furnish more feed if put into the silo than if handled in any other way. In most cases they will also make more money, particularly if the season should be wet or late or both, as last year was.

A few statements from farm letters will help tell why our slogan should be "A silo on every farm" and why every Missouri farmer should join those in the state who have already built about 10,000 silos. Some of them say:

"I never fed any other feed as cheap as silage."

"I wouldn't be without a silo. Mine paid for itself in two years."

"I practically wintered twenty head of stock on thirteen acres of silage, and wouldn't have had nearly enough if fed from the field."

A well-built silo of any type will keep silage well, so the cost of different materials will in many cases decide whether to buy or build, and what type of silo to select. In choosing, low first cost, cheap maintenance, durability, and smooth air-tight wall should be demanded. Ordinarily the more permanent silo should be built.

Plans and instructions for building concrete silos may be secured from the College of Agriculture, Columbia, Missouri, and a circular giving full directions for building a Gurler silo is also available.—M. A. R. Kelley.

WHY TAKE A CHANCE?

When riding on a country road,
Near a crossing at a grade,
You hear a distant whistle blow
And know why the sound is made.
All who hear the warning given
Must expect to find
An engine coming down the line,
And a train of cars behind.
Can't the engineer stop it?
Why, yes, after a while,
But it takes a little distance,
Say, 'bout half a mile.
Don't give your car more gasoline,
Or whip up your "Old Hoss,"
And take a chance of getting hit,
To beat the train across.
For if it ever hits you,
Well—I've only this to say,
"There'll be joy in Heaven,"
Or, "There'll be the Devil to pay."

WALKLESS' PARADE

BIG SUFFRAGE DAY IN ST. LOUIS JUNE 14.

OPENING OF CONVENTION

Democratic National Delegates to Be Shown Sentiment in Favor of Equal Voting Rights.

Wednesday, June 14, the first day of the National Democratic convention, is to be Suffrage Day in St. Louis.

The "Golden Lane" has become practically a golden day, because nearly all of the women's organizations are going to line up at one time or another Although, on account of their occupations, they are not able to appear all at the same time, their inclination to stand in line is the same the city over.

The "Golden Lane" will form at 10 A. M., between the Jefferson hotel and the Coliseum along both sides of Locust street. There will be one line of women seated on camp stools with their suffrage yellow parasols across their knees, and a line of women standing behind them holding their parasols so as to protect themselves and their seated companions from the sun. Every fifteen minutes the seated and the standing women will change places No one need refuse to take part in the "walkless parade" for fear of undue fatigue.

At noon the city's bells and whistles will break the line, and at that hour the Baby Welfare association, the Visiting Nurse association, and the other "baby interests" will be hostesses at a luncheon under a big tent on the corner of Locust street and Jefferson avenue.

From 3 to 5 in the afternoon the Woman's Council will give an entertainment.

At 6:30 the Town club will give a dinner at which prominent visiting suffragists will speak.

At 8 P. M. the Business Women's Equal Suffrage League will take charge of a great demonstration on Twelfth street. Business and professional women and all those whose employment during the day prevents their appearing in the morning's "Golden Lane" are cordially invited to take part.

Suffrage Day will be a continuous demonstration of the solidarity of women's interests. No woman in the city, the county, or the state—nay, even in the whole United States—need be left out. If she believes that a woman's vote can help her country, her community, her home, her children or herself—June 14th will give her the opportunity to show it.

M. U. UNION IS PROPOSED

Every Student, Former Student Graduate and Friend of School Eligible to Membership in the Club.

Every past and present student of the University of Missouri at Columbia will be entitled to membership in the Missouri Union if a plan to be voted on by the alumni association at Commencement is successful. The present student body adopted the plan at a mass meeting May 18 by a heavy vote.

There are about 5,000 graduates and more than twice that number of former students. The former students are as much interested in the school as the graduates, and the officers of the alumni association believe they should have equal membership privileges. The student enrollment this year is more than 4,000.

The proposed Missouri Student-Alumni Union, which will bring together all interests of the university, is patterned after similar successful unions of other great universities. The union will aim to provide a common meeting ground for students, faculty, alumni and former students, and it will hope to have a large membership from the 20,000 persons who are or have been connected with the university.

L. W. ANDREWS of the Plymouth Clothing Co. of St. Joseph will be at the Linville hotel Wednesday and Thursday, May 24 and 25, with a display of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothing, men's furnishing goods, hats and shoes, for your approval.—Adv.

The Secret of "KORRECT" Wash Skirts

They Stay "New"

It is no longer the summer skirt of former years—that after one tubbing lost its crispy newness.

It has now a well defined place in the world of summer fashions—it is trim and correctly flares and fits like your best wool or silk skirt—even AFTER it has been laundered.

This is due to THOROUGH SHRINKING of the materials BEFORE it is touched by the cutter's shears—with the result that in all "PRESHRUNK KORRECT WASH SKIRTS" the fabric neither gives — nor shrinks — nor stretches out of shape.

As usual our range of materials is complete, showing—FRENCH PIQUES — GABARDINES — CORDELINES — BASKET WEAVES — WAFFLE STRIPES and NOVELTY WEAVES, including the new SILVERBLOOM fabric.

"Korrect" Preshrunk Skirts

Are priced up from..... $3.50
Other Tub Skirts range up from..... $1.00

The size range includes everything from 23 to 40 bands

"Loan of $5,000 Won't Make Farmer Put Machines Under Shelter," Thinks Uncle Bill.

"Could you go through this town and do any especial good by giving every business firm in hard straits a $5,000 bill?" demanded "Uncle Bill," who relieves his mind occasionally through the columns of the Profitable Farming magazine.

"It would just mean, mostly, that your $5,000 would go into the same hole as the rest, wouldn't it? Well, cheap farm loans aren't going to make a farmer keep his mowing machine in the shed instead of the fence corner, nor plant his corn any more carefully, nor make him any more forehanded about gathering it in the fall.

"I wish it weren't so; I wish that all that was needed in order to coax prosperity to every farm was merely for the government to loan the farmer $1,000 at 2½ per cent, amortizing in twenty-five years. I wish it were true, but I could'nt say so without stretching my conscience considerably There's a heap more to prosperity than merely borrowing money."

Miss Fannie Albright left today for Pickering, where she will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Jones.

A Mistake in the Policy of the Bethlehem Steel Company

To the People:

The Senate of the United States has passed a bill to spend $11,000,000 of the People's money to build a government armor plant. The measure is now before the House of Representatives.

It is said that manufacturers of armor have "gouged" the country in the past, and that a government plant is necessary to secure armor more cheaply.

The mistake of the Bethlehem Steel Company has been that it has kept quiet.

We have allowed irresponsible assertions to be made for so long without denial, that many people now believe them to be proven facts.

We shall make the mistake of silence no longer.

Henceforth we shall pursue a policy of publicity. Misinformation will not be permitted to go uncorrected.

It is and has been the policy of our Company to deal with the American Government fairly and squarely.

We shall henceforth place the details of our relations with the Government before the American People.

The United States has for twenty years obtained the highest grade of armor and has paid a lower price for it than has any other great naval power.

Figures officially compiled for the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs from the Naval Year Book show that under conditions prevailing just before the European war, the chief naval powers of the world were paying these prices for armor:

England, $503 per ton; France, $460; Germany, $490; Japan, $490; UNITED STATES, $425.

A government plant cannot make armor any cheaper than we can do it; and—

We are prepared to manufacture armor at any price which the Government itself shall name as fair. THAT BEING SO, SHOULD $11,000,000 OF THE PEOPLE'S MONEY BE WASTED TO BUILD A GOVERNMENT PLANT?

Liberty's high school agricultural teacher gets no vacation this year. Prof. Carter stays in Liberty this summer to supervise the gardens of the pupils of the schools. The Liberty Advance states that there are about a hundred of these gardens.

Mrs. N. E. Wills, pioneer resident of the Stewartsville neighborhood since the early 60's died there last week, aged 90 years.

A DeKalb county farmer struck his wife in the face with a board and knocked her down the other day in an attempt to chastise an unruly mule. He was trying to drive the mule into the barn. As it ran past the barn door he struck at it with a board, and just as he did so, his wife emerged unexpectedly from the barn and received the blow full in her face. The woman has a badly crushed nose, but will recover.

Business men and farmers of the Darlington community have recently organized a commercial club.

An old man of Liberty, who is very hard of hearing, wrote to the manager of the Billy Sunday meetings in Kansas City, asking if seats were reserved "up front" for those afflicted like himself. The reply was that it could not be done, says the Advance; that the plan was tried once in an Eastern city and the whole town went deaf in two days.

The Kansas State Agricultural college paid $1,100 for two Missouri calves recently to add to the college herd at Manhattan, Kansas. These calves were Polled Angus stock from the farm of C, D. & E. F. Caldwell of Burlington Junction.

Chillicothe will vote on local option June 12. The town has had saloons for four years.

The Hopkins Journal has found the bright side of the high-priced paper situation. Owing to the demand for all waste materials suitable for paper making, the Hopkins people have quit chewing the rag.

The editor of the Lathrop Optimist, who has been strong for parking cars in the middle of the street, and announced a recent town ordinance to that effect last week, was the first to suffer therefrom. A runaway team dashed down the street, tangled with his "Tin Lizzy," as it rested serenely in the middle of the street and left it considerably damaged. "We still maintain that the center of the street is the place to put cars—if left on Oak street," says the Optimist editor.

The Albany good roads meeting broke all records. Between 1,500 and 2,000 Jefferson highway boosters were in attendance. Exactly 240 cars were parked in the streets of Albany at one time during the meeting.

George Meredith, a pioneer of Harrison county since 1857, died at New Hampton, May 3, aged 88 years. He was widely known as a successful farmer and a valuable citizen.

Judge Davis Harris, sitting as special judge of the circuit court at Grant City, made permanent the injunctions against liquor shipments into that county.

Grant City dogs are wearing muzzles, as the result of a mad dog scare. The dog of Nightwatchman Wright went mad last week and was killed.

Mrs. A. A. Proctor of Princeton is one of the hundred young women chosen as the most beautiful in the country by the World Equitable Motion Picture Corporation. There were 8,000 contestants. The number will be still narrowed down and Missouri expects Mrs. Proctor to be one of the eleven chosen in the finals.

Grand River was at flood stage last week, and did much damage along the bottom lands. Wm. Harris, of Trenton, started from Princeton in a row boat at 7 o'clock one morning and made the trip to Trenton by 5 o'clock that afternoon—a distance estimated by the Trenton Republican at 100 miles.

Princeton, by a vote of three to one, approved the $12,500 issue of bonds, last Friday, for the improvement of the city water and light system.

Fifty poultry and egg dealers of Worth, Gentry and Harrison county met last week at New Hampton to discuss the recent ruling enforcing the pure food law with reference to candling eggs. The U. S. department of agriculture rules that eggs must be candled by the local dealers and issues a warning that this will be strictly enforced from this time forward. The dealers in convention have effected a permanent organization and will at once take steps to interpret the law and comply with its provisions. It is said that good eggs will be paid for under this arrangement at prices one to two cents higher than the old system.

"Hoch der Kaiser" Krotzer who lives across the street from the Tribune office at Grant City, rushed out of his front door and gave the fire alarm one morning last week. When assistance arrived it was found that a pan of boiling water on his stove had thrown a weird and dangerous looking reflection upon the skylight of the room and that was the extent of the conflagration.

The DeKalb county court met last week and voted to assist Maysville in paving around the square, and will have the paving constructed right up to the hitchracks.

The students of the Jamesport high school, instead of issuing the ordinary high school annual, published a regular eight-page newspaper last week, selling the "Jamesport High School Screamer." It was a clever piece of work, says the Gallatin North Missourian, and contained sensational news matter, splendid illustrations and cartoons.

It looks like robbers are making the rounds of dental offices and stealing gold, says the Gallatin North Missourian. In the past few days dental offices in Trenton, Princeton and Cameron have been entered and a quantity of gold stolen. About $75 worth of gold was taken from the three offices in Trenton, Tuesday night.

F. M. Harrison, hustling editor of the Gallatin North Missourian, has this to say in regard to some recent actions of his father: "C. M. Harrison of Sedalia, senior editor of this paper, pulls a good many stunts when he is out in public, but his latest role is that of 'Jacques,' in a Shakesperean musical pageant. We never heard him sing but imagine he has a fine voice."

"Billy Jim" Patterson of near Maitland, is termed the corn king of Holt county by the Mound City News-Jeffersonian. He has 1,600 acres planted in corn and kept 14 listers going while planting it.

The Albany Capital tells of the drowning of a team of horses in the floods of May 12 near Gentryville. James Wollard was driving across the Stillhouse creek, just northwest of Gentryville that night, when the water carried them off the embankment and swept them down stream. The horses still hitched to the pole of the buggy were found next day near Pattonsburg. The owner of the team escaped.

Miss Ila Wyatt, a student at Tarkio college, was very seriously burned during a dance given by the Junior girls in the May fetes that were given last week. The girls had just completed the first part of a pretty Japanese dance and were lighting the sparklers for the spectacular conclusion when Miss Wyatt's clothing caught fire She was badly burned about the arms, shoulders and chest before the flames were smothered under the coats of several spectators.

NOT A B. J. VOTE AGAINST

Little Balloting on Electric Light Proposition to Sell Plant to Maryville Company

Voting on the proposition of selling the Burlington Junction municipal light plant to the Maryville Electric Light and Power company has been very light. At noon every vote that had been cast, according to one of the judges, was for it. On account of the funeral of the late Rodolph R. Staples this afternoon at 3 o'clock only a few votes had been cast.

Mrs. Frank Shreve of Pickering has returned from Kansas City, where she attended the state assembly of Rebekahs.

BIG ROOSTER CRIPPLES MAN.

Resents Intrusion of Angler, Who Was Crossing Barnyard.

Pendleton, Ore.—L. A. McClintock, local implement dealer, is among the wounded and helpless as a result of an encounter with an angry rooster.

While he was crossing through a barnyard near the Furish dam, en route to the river with an angling outfit, a big Buff Cochin rooster, resenting the intrusion, flew at him. Unable to pierce his rubber boots with its beak, the rooster jumped into the air and drove his spurs home just above McClintock's knee, one on each side.

The spurs struck a tendon and crippled him. He was helped to an auto and brought home.

THAT'S WHAT SPRAYING DOES FOR APPLE TREES.

Demonstration Was With Same Kind of Trees Standing Side by Side in Same Orchard.

Five unsprayed apple trees in the orchard of one Kansas farmer last year yielded $8 worth of apples. A short distance away were four trees which yielded $52 worth. The difference was that the four trees had been sprayed, while the five had not, says an article in the mid-May number of Profitable Farming magazine.

This occurred in a demonstration carried on by George O. Green, specialist in horticulture of the Kansas state agricultural college, and convinced the farmer absolutely.

Another Kansas orchard that had not been producing anything for ten years, yielded $200 worth of apples for sale besides all that a large family could eat and can.

Mr. Green this year has thirty-five demonstration orchards, and the sensational results obtained last year are causing a wide interest in this year's activities. Each of these orchards is a show place in the community, and is visited by large numbers of people. It is a part of the owner's agreement that he pass along the benefits as much as possible. But he gets to keep the apples.

KANSAS CITY MARKET LETTER.

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 23.—Cattle prices advanced around 25 cents last week, and closed firm. The supply today is 10,000 head, same as on last Monday, and strong conditions are again effective. In addition, sellers got a heavy fill on everything, trade was active, and cattle went over the scales carrying the whole fill. The feature today was a train of 26 cars of cattle and hogs from Broken Bow, Nebr., which made the 370 mile run in 22 hours, and contained steers at $9.65 and $9.85, the latter price top for the day.

Colorado pulp fed steers were not as numerous as on recent Mondays, most of them at $9.50 and $9.60, a few at $9.25. Bulk of the beef steers range from $8.75 to $9.50, there being no longer anything that can be called cheap. Idaho pulp fed steers brought $9.40 today, a record price, and Montana barley fed steers brought $9.20, highest price on record for Montanas by 45 cents.

Quarantine receipts amount to scarcely anything, North Texas feeders observing with pleasure the trend of the market with reference to their own cattle, ready in June; South Texas shippers with very few cattle suitable for market, and Oklahoma grassers not yet ready. Stockers and feeders held up strong last week, and are firm today, and if there is to be a seasonable break in prices this month there are no signs of it yet.

Sales range from $7.50 to $8.75 in most cases. Hogs closed last week with almost a complete recovery from the break early in the week, but a good run at leading markets today sent prices down again, supply here 15,000. However, order buyers bought some hogs here early at steady prices, top $9.90, but bulk of sales at $9.60 to $9.80, ranged 5c to 10c lower.

The supply last week was 15,000 more than previous week, but packers acted like it was a boom and not a hardship, which points to the extraordinary capacity of consumptive channels, and incidentally offers encouragement as regards future markets. Sheep and lambs sold stronger every day last week, and are firm today, some sales higher, fat goats a quarter higher. No fancy wooled lambs are offered today, but same are worth around $12.50.

Clipped westerns weighing 88 pounds brought $10.75, a new high record, and native spring lambs, medium class, sold at $12.25. Texas wethers of second grade brought $8.50, choice ones worth $8.75 and more, Arizona clipped yearlings today at $9.10, 88 pound average, Angora killing goats at $5.75 to $6.35 today, highest range on record, Angora brushers $5.40 to $5.75, Mexican brushers $4.00 to $5.00, broken mouth nannies to killers at $5. Receipts are 9,000 today, but the supply for a week has shown a big shortage from recent weeks.

STARTLED BY KISS

Long Distance Courtship Rounds Up With a Mishap.

WRONG FELLOW IS HUGGED.

Victim Utters Incoherent Words of Inquiry When Prospective Husband Comes Along, and After Apologies He Hurries Her Off to Minister.

Parsons, Kan.—Marcella Howland kissed the wrong man. And inasmuch as Marcella at the time of her osculatory performance was engaged to be married and the man she kissed was not her prospective husband, she found herself in an embarrassing situation when the real groom hove to and made anxious inquiry as to her affection for another man. If it had been in the good old days of rapiers and swords perhaps there would have been a duel, with much blood, but there was none of that, and only a few people at the Katy station were aware of the near tragedy.

The story of the kissing and Marcella and the man she kissed and the man she should have kissed adds another chapter to the volumes that have been written about long distance love making. This episode might have been labeled "Courtship by Mail, or Wooing by Correspondence." The story is this, duly attested and sworn to by at least one of the parties concerned:

Marcella lives near Joplin and is a helper in a grocery store. A year ago she found the name of James Vandyke in a case of eggs, the said James not being a barber, as his name might indicate, but a raiser of chickens and corn near Anadarko, Okla. Marcella wrote to James, and James replied. Then followed a correspondence with each succeeding letter ripened into love. A month ago it was decided to meet in Parsons and have a minister here perform the ceremony, an elopement being considered the proper thing to do.

James arrived and spent a restless afternoon waiting for his bride, who was to come from Joplin on the evening train.

Came 7:45 o'clock, and with it the train from Joplin and Marcella. James was a bit confused in time and was not at the station. Marcella, wearing a pink carnation by prearrangement, went to the waiting room and sat down to await the arrival of her husband to be.

Now enter the other side of the triangle, whose name for the present is unknown, as he absolutely refused to divulge his identity. His name will be John Doe for this occasion. John entered the station and gazed over the crowds. Marcella saw him, and after giving him time to discover her tripped across the room and stood enraptured before the astonished man.

"Well, here I am, James," she said demurely, waiting for her fiance to take her in his arms, etc., etc.

John gasped, but made no move toward her.

"Why, you bashful thing," the girl exclaimed, and with that bounded over to the man, threw her arms about him and planted a kiss upon his lips.

John extricated himself as best he could—or would, and was mumbling some incoherent words of inquiry when in came a breathless Vandyke, who had come up just in time to behold the performance, and, convinced that some one was making away with his bride to be, rushed up to thwart him.

As he approached misgiving spread over Marcella's face. She had a faint suspicion that she had kissed the wrong man, and this suspicion grew with each step of the excited Vandyke. He stood before her. She looked at Doe and then at Vandyke. Yes, the last man was certainly the one she had come to meet. How could she have mistaken the other fellow for him, although their resemblance was quite marked?

Then apologies, explanations, assurances by Doe to Vandyke that he was an innocent party and had no intention to "cop" Marcella, and then Marcella kissed the right man, right there in the station, with a score of people watching her.

The couple decided to take the 8:22 train back to Joplin and be married there. They hurried to a telephone, made an appointment with a minister there and left.

GETS BACK HIS SIGHT.

Blinded by a Fall, a Man Is Recovering After Eight Years.

Philadelphia.—Unable to see for eight years, Edward Claycomb, a painter, of Altoona, Pa., is recovering his sight by degrees.

In 1908 he fell from a house he was painting, and in addition to his other injuries he detached the retinas of both eyes. He became blind. Specialists of a dozen cities were consulted, and they all told him his case was hopeless.

For the last several weeks his sight has been returning, and now he can see and read large letters and distinguish between colors. Physicians are puzzled. Claycomb is hopeful that his sight will become normal.

Sells Hidden Money With Potatoes.

Manton, Cal.—W. A. Cleland placed $320 in $20 gold pieces in a potato bin for safe keeping. Forgetting about the money, he sold some potatoes. Later a search for the coin proved unsuccessful. Cleland now thinks banks are a safer proposition than potato bins.

National Defense and International Peace

Preparedness and Peace—and the Engineer

The United States desires peace, based on justice and maintained with honor. But to insure this kind of peace Americans must know that nations are now defended not alone by fighting men but by fighting industries.

The Engineers of this country—trained as only American Engineers are trained—hold that truth to be as fundamental as the law of gravity. With the authority of the United States Government, more than 30,000 Engineers and Chemists, members of five eminent American scientific bodies, are making, for the first time in the history of the Government, a minute, sweeping survey of the industrial resources of America. They will go to the factories and mines of the land, and with their sole method efficiency, and their sole motive patriotism, form a vast, flexible organization, such as the world has never known.

Their work will be the basis for creating in this country a true line of defense in time of war—the ability to produce swiftly, abundantly and with sustained power all the thousand and one elements of modern warfare. Without such production there can be no efficient army and navy.

Military Preparedness wins the battle. But Industrial Preparedness wins the WAR!

Industrial Preparedness involves no huge expenses—only the KNOWLEDGE of what American Industry can do.

To KNOW the extent of each plant—the equipment of each shop—the capacity of each machine—the ability of each man—that is the essence of Industrial Preparedness; that is the task to which thirty thousand Engineers are pledged. The Engineers' work will lay for all time the ghost of the "munitions trust," by making it possible to have munitions made in thousands of plants.

This vital work of the engineers will supply the military authorities in Washington with information never before collected and it is carried forward without a dollar's cost to the Government. And this advertisement is not paid for. The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World have prepared the copy and the publishers have patriotically responded and printed it without pay for the sake of National Defense and International Peace.

All Americans are asked to strike hands with the Engineers so that America shall learn how to raise up an impregnable wall of defense against a day of trial.
